There are times when differences of rank do not count, and an Irish soldier is said to have chanced upon one of them during the late war in Cuba. He was discovered by the sergeant of his company in a hole, well out of the way of even a stray shot, when he should have been engaged in active service. "Get out of that hole," commanded the sergeant, sternly. "Get out of it this minute!" The broad Irish face looked up at him, with stubborn resistance written on every feature. "You may be me superior officer," he said boldly, "but all the same O'm the wan that found this hole fir-st!"—Mirror.
